DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Keshav ("An Engineering Approach to Computer Networking").

Regarding claim 1, Keshav discloses a method of router configuration. Keshav determines a set of site reachability data in the form of LSP records. He describes the LSP records on page 320 lines 33 – 41 (Also see page 319 line 10 – 320 line 7). He defines the global routing profile in terms of a summary record on page 321 lines 1 – 9. Keshav discloses the method for generating a routing configuration based on the site reachability data and the global routing profile on page 321 lines 15 – 26.

Regarding claim 2, Keshav discloses the use of a site profile on page 323 line 37 – page 324 line 2 in terms of the manual intervention to the router configuration.

Regarding claim 3, Keshav discloses the idea of an OSPF profile on page 322 line 2 – page 323 line 8 in terms of manually editing the search process to exclude situations where OSPF is not desired.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
